

Lakes' Eagle Theatre
IMPROVAGANZA

Hey you. Yes, YOU! We hear you love pizza, theatre, comedy, and having fun with friends! So, here's a special offer just for middle school students!! You are invited to join us for a pizza party and improv workshop. AND, we'll give you free tickets to see TWO plays in a fun night of comedy - the hilarious Murder in the Knife Room, and Lakes' annual improv and sketch comedy showcase, Hey! Who Turned Off the Lights?!

When? Saturday, May 19

What time? 5-9pm

5-6:30 Pizza Party and Improv Workshop

6:30-7:00 Perform/watch improv on the mainstage

7:00-9:00 Performances!

Where? Lakes' Auditorium and Commons

Who? Any middle schooler is welcome to join!

How much? Everything is FREE for middle school students!

Additional tickets may be purchased at seatyoursself.biz/lakeschs beginning May 1.

No need to RSVP - just show up ready to have fun!

Want more theatre?

Here are a few of the many great opportunities that await you at Lakes and other schools!

- Exciting classes, including Beginning Theatre and Stagecraft that you can take as a freshman.
- Eagle Theatre, which meets frequently for improv, field trips, master classes, and parties.
- Performances, including plays, musicals, the 24 Hour Play Festival, and more!
- A community of friends and artists to help you navigate high school and beyond.

Facebook: LCHS Eagle Theatre

Twitter, Instagram: @LakesTheatre

Email Sarah Clement, Eagle Theatre President sarah.clement@chsd117.org

Ms. Chusid, Theatre Director abra.chusid@chsd117.org

Mr. Mozes, Technical Director ariel.mozes@chsd117.org